

 STELLAR DESIGNS Ltd.

Company History

Stellar Designs Ltd is a leading apparel sourcing company based in Dhaka, Bangladesh. Over the years it has culminated notable experience in producing ready-made garments consisting of both knit and woven wear to renowned clothing brands and importers in the US, Canadian and European markets.

The team of Stellar consists of the perfect mix of talented, experienced and dynamic employees who can cater to the needs of its clients by pledging the best workmanship and on-time shipment of quality merchandise along with offering its customers the most competitive prices. Hence, the notable difference between Stellar Designs and other apparel companies in Bangladesh can be witnessed in its quality of work and the overall work practice which makes it easy for the clients to handle their business overseas.

The team of Stellar Designs Ltd is classed into two divisions: the knit division and the woven division. The company operations is headed by Mr. Gamini Perera, the CEO of Stellar Designs Ltd, a man who many in this field deem as a pioneer in establishing the ready-made garments sector in Bangladesh due to the pivotal roles he had played while serving in top managerial positions in some of the most renowned ready-made garment manufacturing and sourcing companies, in both Bangladesh and Sri Lanka. The man with 30 years of experience under his belt, is a task enforcer and firmly believes in the moto – “Customer is King” by which he enables and motivates the team of Stellar to achieve the impossible.

Our Mission

The mission is to provide value added service and quality to our customers for every cent they spend when sourcing their ready-made garments from us, as well as offering the most competitive prices. The team of Stellar is also very particular about maintaining liaison and round the clock unhindered communication with its buyers, for which it has always been appreciated.

Message from the CEO

The Bangladesh ready-made garments sector is going through its golden era is what I would say. This is the best time for apparel buyers from all over the world to start thinking of sourcing their garments and other apparel merchandise from Bangladesh.

Bangladesh offers the lowest labor cost compared to any other garments producing country in the world, which is why we will be able to offer our clients the most competitive prices and maximize the profitability of our customers.

Message from the Managing Director

In spite of Bangladesh being the second biggest garments manufacturer in the world and offering much cheaper prices compared to other garments producing nations like China, Vietnam and India, where the costs are higher by more than five manifolds, I personally feel that buyers still haven't been able to fully exploit the potential of the Bangladeshi market due to lack of proper communication and poor rapport with its suppliers. This is where an educated and skilled workforce can mitigate the deficit.

Hence, we at Stellar maintain a highly skilled and educated workforce and a business development team to ensure that proper liaison is maintained with our customers and they are timely briefed about the local market conditions and of any new developments and possibilities of business expansion and cooperation. This is what differentiates Stellar Designs Ltd from the rest, the ease of doing business with us.

Quality Control & Assurance

Our quality control & assurance is headed by a highly skilled individual, with more than two decades of experience in handling the quality of big brands like Lidl, Aldi, Carrefour and Walmart to name a few.

Research & Development

Not many apparel sourcing offices in the country have adopted R&D into their core activity, whereas R&D has been an integral part of Stellar since its inception. We constantly develop new products and dispatch them to our respected clients.

Merchandising

With several years of prolific experience in the field, the merchandisers at Stellar Designs Ltd. are thoroughly acquainted with current market trends. We are also highly proficient with the ERP system.

The Stellar Team

Our management team consists of four directors with a collective accumulated experience of forty five years in the RMG sector, they have a profound knowledge in the areas of merchandising, quality control and assurance, product pricing and development.

They play an active role in maintaining liaison with the customers through unhindered communication. The employees working at Stellar Designs Ltd are classified into different departments based on their field of expertise.

Business Development

Stellar Designs Ltd employs a business development manager who is tasked with sourcing new clients and to constantly maintain liaison with the customers and address their issues.

Commercial & Logistics

The commercial and logistics department is bestowed with the responsibility of handling the commercial aspects of the business, such as dealing with banks, L/Cs and dealing with the freight forwarders.

Sourcing Department

This department is tasked with sourcing new suppliers, be it for fabrics, trims and all the relevant auxiliaries needed to make a garment.

// At Stellar, we are firm believers that a company's stronghold is its customers. Without satisfied customers, a business may never thrive. Hence, we consider our customers as the greatest asset. After all, a satisfied customer is always the best business strategy. //

Our Suppliers

Our manufacturing units are fully compliant with BSCI, SEDEX, WRAP, ACCORD, ALLIANCE, Oeko-tex. All of them are vertically set and leading manufactures in Bangladesh in respect of woven and knits. The factories we work with are all in line with the buyers' requirements and the aforementioned compliances. Compliance requirements vary from customer to customer and we do the compliance audit as per the buyers' requirement before placing orders. Besides, the manufacturing units we work with are capable of producing huge volumes of garments around the year. Our sourcing is tasked with the responsibilities of sourcing factories and performing factory audits.

Stellar Designs Ltd is also an associate member of the leading and most prestigious trade body of Bangladesh, the Bangladesh Garments and Exporters Manufacturers Association (BGMEA).
